

Careers for an Age-Friendly Philadelphia

Examples, Networking, and Tools

Thursday, April 8, 5.30-7.30pm

The United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania (17th and the Parkway)

From community development, to the arts, law, social work, and more, each profession has the opportunity to touch the lives of older people and help our city become a lifelong community.

★ Keynote Speaker: Holly Lange ★
Senior Vice President, Philadelphia Corporation for Aging

Lightning Talks (5 min each) by GenPhilly Steering Committee

- *Matt Bryan, BA, Program Manager, ArtReach
- *Raechel Hammer, MSW, MJCS, COO of Strategic Development, Compliance & Senior Services, Raymond and Miriam Klein Jewish Community Centers
- *Catherine Khayati, MSW, Program Manager, Nursing Home Transition Team, Philadelphia Corporation for Aging
- *Immani Wilkes, MPH, Managing Director, The Enterprise Community Development Corporation
- *Jeni Wright, Esq., Staff Attorney, SeniorLAW Center
- *Kathya Zinszer, DPM, Associate Professor, Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine

Please RSVP by Tuesday, April 6 to Kate Clark, kclark@pcaphl.org, 215-765-9000x5072

Generation Appreciation philadelphia
www.genphilly.org

Generation Appreciation Philadelphia (GenPhilly) is committed to promoting an age-friendly city by inspiring emerging leaders to make connections with older adults in their professional and personal lives. We aim to bring a new perspective to Philadelphians in a variety of disciplines through creative programming and networking opportunities.